It is your responsibility to try in good faith to resolve any disputes and assist at all times to promote harmony in the workplace.

Will not act corruptly.

Corrupt conduct occurs when:

- A public official performs their duties dishonestly or unfairly;
- Anyone (including a public official) who does something that could result in a public official performing their duties dishonestly or unfairly;
- Anyone (including a public official) who does something that has a detrimental effect on official duties, and which involves any of a wide range of matters, including (for example) fraud, bribery, official misconduct, violence by a Team Member or former Team Member breaches public trust; or
- Team Members and Governance Body Member or former Team Member misuses information or material obtained in the course of duty.

Not smoke, take illegal drugs or consume alcohol when on duty or on the premises.

As we ask that Service Users do not smoke in your presence we also ask that you give the same respect. The Service has a designated smoking area. Please use ashtrays.

The Service requires that no Team Members or Governance Body member is under the influence of drugs or alcohol while working or volunteering.

Not make an offer or make suggestion about purchasing/acquiring any property of the Service User.

Should a service user wish to or be considering selling a piece of property interest by a Team Member may result in the Service user:

- making a gift of the property to the Team Member;
- offering the item to the Team Member at less than the market value; or
- Asking the Team Members advice with regard to disposal of the item.

Not solicit gifts from Service Users.

It is natural for Service Users to sometimes want to give a gift to a Team Member however the Service has a Duty of Care to Service Users to protect them from situations that could be perceived as abuse of position.

The acceptance of a gift may place a Team Member or Service User in a situation where they may feel a debt is owed. This could also lead to a Service User receiving, or being perceived as receiving, preferential treatment or the Service User feeling obligated to provide further gifts to the Team Member.

Team Members and Governance Body Members are not to directly or indirectly encourage or demand or any gift or benefit in respect of work performed or services delivered by them in connection with their position at the Service.

If a sum of money is paid over the standard rate for the Service it will be considered a donation to the Service. This should be explained to the Service User and a receipt given.

Regarding the acceptance of gifts the following two options are provided:

Option 1

To ensure that Service Users are not placed in a position of potential abuse no Team Member of the Service will accept any gift over the value of $10 or home produce (such as a cutting of a favourite plant, homemade jam). Any Team Member receiving such a gift from a Service User must notify the office and have the item placed on the Gift Register, recording the gift protects both the Service User and the Team Member.

Option 2

If a gift is offered, let the Service User know you are grateful but that it is the policy of the Service that you cannot accept gifts. If they wish, the Service User or you can talk to the Manager to discuss the issue.

Not have sexual relationships with Service Users, visit Service Users home or take them to Team Member's homes outside of regular duties approved by the Service.

People you meet while working with the Service are Service Users and as such will be protected by the Service. It is inappropriate to form relationships with Service Users outside the parameters of service provision. Inappropriate relationships encourage a blurring of boundaries between individuals and can result in the Service User and/or Team Member becoming dependent upon each other rather than relying on the Service for information and support.

Not abuse or harass, physically or verbally, other Team Members or Service Users of the Service.

All Team Members must refrain from any form of conduct, including using bad language that may cause offence, intimidation or embarrassment to Service Users, Team Members, Governance Body Members or members of the Public. Discrimination and harassment will not be tolerated under any circumstances

It is the responsibility of every Team Member to:

- Not participate in discriminatory or harassing behaviour within the workplace;
- Offer support to anyone who is being harassed and let them know where they can get help and advice (they should not, however, approach the harasser themselves); and
- Maintain complete confidentiality if they provide information during the investigation of a complaint. Team Members should be warned that spreading gossip or rumours may expose them to a defamation action.

Sexual harassment is any unwanted or uninvited behaviour of a sexual nature which makes a person feel humiliated, intimidated or offended. Sexual harassment can take many different forms and may include physical contact, verbal comments, jokes, propositions, the display of offensive material or other behaviour which creates a sexually hostile working environment.

Specific examples of sexual harassment may include: uninvited touching; uninvited kisses or embraces; smutty jokes or comments; making promises or threats in return for sexual favours; displays of sexually graphic material including posters, pinups, cartoons, graffiti or messages left on notice boards, desks or common areas; repeated invitations to go out after prior refusal; “flashing” or sexual gestures; sex-based insults, taunts, teasing or name calling; staring or leering at a person or at parts of their body; unwelcome physical contact such as massaging a person without invitation or deliberately brushing up against them; touching or fiddling with a person’s clothing including lifting up skirts or shirts, flicking bra straps, or putting hands in a person’s pocket; requests for sex; sexually explicit conversation; persistent questions or insinuations about a person’s private life; offensive phone calls or letters; stalking; and offensive e-mail messages or computer screen savers.

Sexual harassment is unlawful in any work-related context, including conferences, work functions, office Christmas parties and business or field trips and includes interactions with Service Users.

Sexual harassment is not behaviour which is based on mutual attraction, friendship and respect. If the interaction is consensual, welcome and reciprocated it is not sexual harassment.

Not give advice to Service Users.

It is not the role of the Service to provide advice to Service Users. If you are asked for advice please tell the Service User that you cannot give advice and as what may be right for you may not be right for them.

Not alienate Service Users from their family.

It is important to remember “there are two sides to every story” and the Service does not engage in family disputes or attempt to alienate Service Users from their families.

Misconduct

Misconduct may result in suspension and/or instant dismissal of a Team Member. Misconduct includes, but is not limited to:

Theft of property or funds from the Service.

This includes any equipment, stationary, food, petty cash, falsely claiming reimbursement and/or overtime/travel etc., and all other goods and property owned by the Service

The above will not be tolerated by the organisation under any circumstances. It should be noted that harassment is defined by the person being harassed not the person inflicting the harassment. Ensure your behavior cannot be construed as harassment at any time.

The use of unprofessional speech such as swearing or bad language.

It is the duty of all Team Members to always act in a professional manner and this includes speaking politely to all.

The disclosure of confidential information in respect to the organisation to any other party without prior permission.

Disclosure of confidential information is also a crime under the Privacy Legislation. This includes discussing a Service User in anyway where other people may over hear. Disclosure may include both verbal and written communication (including social media such as face book, text messaging and twitter)

Carrying on private business in an activity similar to that undertaken by the organisation without prior written permission.

No private similar business may be conducted without written permission of the Governance Body.
