Better Support. Stronger Connections.

From Natasha's Desk

Welcome to our July update. It's been a pleasure looking after you, and I'm happy to share a little of what we've been working on – and what's coming next.

A Community Built on Rights, Respect & Connection

I want to begin with a story that reminds us why we do what we do. When we first met Anita*, she was waiting for her very first trip. "I feel equal parts excitement and nerves," she said. As the independence, respect, choice and quality support.

To continue receiving services, we're required to have a signed copy of this Statement on file. If you haven't received one, ask your driver or carer. Please give us a call if you need help; we never want fine print to get in the way of getting where you need to go.

Celebrating Friendship – 30 July

Connection sits at the heart of the new Act, so it feels fitting that International Day of Friendship falls this month. On 30 July, we'll raise a cuppa to bus doors opened, another client reached out and said, "Don't worry - you're with friends now." That simple gesture captures what I love about this community: practical help and genuine friendship arriving hand in hand. Read Anita's full story on page 6.

Legislation Changes Designed to Put You First

On 1 November 2025, a new rights-based Aged Care Act will take effect, placing your dignity, safety and voice at the centre of care. A key part of this is the Strengthened Statement of Rights – a clear outline of your entitlements to every helping hand that turns strangers into travel companions and travel companions into friends.

Your Ideas, Your Adventures

Thanks for your trip suggestions – keep them coming! Anita's already booked two. She's decided nerves can wait.

The Road Ahead

We're here to help you stay informed, connected and inspired. Thank you for travelling with us.

Warmly,

Natasha

CEO, St George Community

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

ABOUT THE NEW AGED CARE ACT

Some important changes are taking place in aged care – and we want to ensure you're informed and prepared.

The new Aged Care Act will commence on 1 November 2025, and all approved providers must meet new standards and legal requirements under this Act.

WHAT'S CHANGING?

One of the key changes is the introduction of a Statement of Rights, which replaces the old Charter of Aged Care Rights.

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO

The Australian Government has mandated that all aged care service providers must give clients a copy of the Statement of Rights.

We are legally required to ask you to review and sign this document.

It outlines your entitlements when receiving aged care services, including your right to:

- Independence and choice
- Fair access
- Respect for privacy
- Safe and high-quality care
- Support to stay connected with your community
- Raise concerns without fear of reprisal

TRANSPORT SERVICES WILL CONTINUE AS NORMAL

Your bookings and transport arrangements will continue as normal. This update is purely about ensuring your paperwork is current and compliant under the new legislation.

LOOK OUT FOR AN EMAIL FROM BOLDSIGN

Our goal is to provide every client with a copy of the Statement of Rights by email OR when travelling in our vehicles.

If we have your email address, you will receive a secure link from BoldSign to review and sign the document online.

WHAT IS BOLDSIGN?

BoldSign is a secure and trusted platform used for electronic document signing. It meets Australian privacy and e-signature laws and makes signing fast, simple and safe.

You will be able to review the document and sign it digitally with just a few clicks.

YOUR PRIVACY IS IMPORTANT TO US

We take your privacy seriously. Whether you sign online or in person, your personal details are handled securely and in line with Australian privacy laws.

PREFER A PAPER COPY?

No problem! You can:

- Collect a copy from your driver or carer when travelling with us
- Return it to a driver, drop it off at our Mortdale office, or post it back
- Visit our office to view and sign the Statement of Rights in person

Aged Care Rights

I have the right to:

- make my own decisions about my own life
- have my decisions not just accepted, but respected
- get information and support to help me make decisions
- communicate my wishes, needs and preferences
- feel safe and respected
- have my culture and identity respected
- stay connected with my community.

Consumers
By signing the Aged Care Rights Document, you are acknowledging that St George Community has given you a copy of the Aged Care Rights and assisted you to understand information about your Aged Care Rights.

Providers
Under the Aged Care law, providers are required to assist you (the consumer) to understand your rights. Providers must give consumers a copy of the charter which is to be signed by the consumer (or authorised person) and the provider. This should include:

- the full name of the consumer (and authorised person, if applicable)
- the date

Out of the House, Into the Community: Anita's Journey Begins

For six long months, Anita* didn't leave the house.

Living with vision impairment and feeling disconnected from the world around her, the once-active 41-year-old became isolated and withdrawn. But today, thanks to personalised support from St George Community, Anita is smiling again – and stepping back into life.

"She's happy. Really happy," said her father, Raj*. "To see that spark in her again – it means everything to us."

Anita has started receiving one-on-one support through St George Community. With a dedicated and highly capable support worker by her side, she's already walked to the local shops in Hurstville and joined her first Sunshine Group social outing to Karimbla restaurant in Miranda.

"She hadn't stepped outside since September," Raj shared. "Now she's getting dressed, looking forward to things, laughing again. It's like we've got our Anita back."

The changes go beyond social outings. Anita has begun talking about her long-time love of basketball – and with growing confidence and new connections, she's starting to imagine playing again. Raj is hopeful that through her new network, she'll have the support to get back into the sport she once loved.

In addition to social support, Anita is now exploring assistive technology to improve her independence at home. St George Community has connected her with occupational therapists who can help assess and recommend tools to support her reading and everyday activities.

The family discovered St George Community almost by chance, after a relative walked past the Mortdale office. "We reached out straight away. Within days she had support in place. It's been such a relief."

Anita is now looking ahead to her next Sunshine Group outing in Bundeena – and whatever comes after that.

"Whether it's the beach, the shops, or the basketball court – she wants to be part of things again," said Raj. "This support hasn't just changed her days – it's changed her future. I'd say to any family out there who's unsure where to turn: don't wait. Reach out. The right support makes all the difference."

Nurina Simpson, Operations and Development Manager at St George Community, said this is what the organisation is all about.

"We provide 1:1 support in the home or out in the community to help individuals achieve their personal goals, build social connections, and engage in local activities. Whether it's catching up with friends, attending local outings, or joining in community events, we're here to empower people like Anita to live life on their terms."
